Themes for Discussion

Four Sessions

The discussion will be divided into four sessions based on sub themes:

Session 1

Theme: National RTE Perspectives

- The current status of RTE in each province with reference to policies designed and ground realities (sensitive to gender, geography and class)
- The process of law formation, rules and implementation in each province (with reference to sector plans)
- What has worked and how to address the challenges
- Recommendations and proposed solutions to meet the challenges

Session 2

Theme: Status and Implementation in other countries – challenges

- RTE in South Asia and challenges faced by the region with reference to quality and learning outcomes –(ideas /initiatives on resources for quality will be very welcome)
 - Initiatives that can be replicated in the region
- Possibilities for regional collaboration in information sharing, capacity building and policy engagement

Session 3

Theme: Partnerships and Private Sector in RTE Implementation – addressing quality and equity

- What is the scope and terms of engagement with private partners to meet RTE quality and equity
- Challenges of partnerships and "free" places in the private sector
- Recommendations for partnerships in RTE with reference to 'free and compulsory education"-

Session 4

Theme: RTE and Implications for Post 2015 Development Agenda – Voices from South Asia & Development Partners

In each panel recommendations will be solicited on implications of RTE with respect to quality, equity and resources (embedded in gender challenges) as well as the post 2015 education goals in context of South Asia.
